Salem - The Retail Committee of the Salem Chamber of Commerce has decided to revive "Salem...Alive After Five," by having retail establishments stay open until 8 p.m. (or later) on Friday and Saturday evenings beginning May 25 and May 26 (Memorial Day weekend) and continuing through Dec. 22. Starting in June, live musical performances, contests, events and entertainment will be planned for these evenings. An updated list of participating stores and special events can be found on the Salem Chamber Web site, www.salem-chamber.org

Salem is already established as the North Shore premier dining and entertainment destination. And with new retail stores opening up every month, Salem is quickly becoming a shopping destination as well. The great number of diverse downtown retail boutiques and stores create a unique shopping experience for both residents and visitors.

The following retailers are participating (and the list grows daily):

A Touch of the Past Antiques at Museum Place Mall, CinemaSalem, Coon's Card & Gift Shop, Cornerstone Books, Gourmet Fare Hocus Pocus Evening Tours, Kensington-Stobart Gallery, Lotus Gifts, Maria's Sweet Somethings, New Civiletea, Pamplemousse, Penelope's Pet Boutique, Polonus Deli & Ice Cream, Red Lion Smoke Shop, Rose Medallion Tea Room, Salem Cycle, Salem's Vintage Photography, Signatures, Sophia's, Treasures Over Time, Turtle Alley, Washington Square Gallery, Witch Tee's and Witch's Hide.
