

Salem Theatre presents benefit cabaret in Salem

Salem — Salem Theatre Company will top off the holiday season with a special cabaret performance titled “Wicked Vocal,” to be held Thursday and Friday, Dec. 29 and 30 at 7:30 p.m. at the STC Theater, 90 Lafayette St.

Molly Gachignard, currently serving as associate conductor for the national touring company of the Broadway musical “Wicked,” will accompany eight local vocal talents, including Peter Addams, Amanda Arruda, Donny Codden, Alex Grover, Bobby Kerrigan and Alex Newell, who recently was a finalist in the reality TV show “The Glee Project,” winning a role in two episodes of the popular FOX series. In addition, Salem High School students Joe Forristall and Meryl Schultz will join Gachignard on stage. Both are members of the SHS A Cappella Group, WitchPitch?

Tickets are $50 and are available online at salemtheatre.com or can be reserved for pick up at the box office before the performance by calling 978-790-8546 or emailing info@salemtheatre.com. Online ticketing ends 24 hours in advance of each performance. Ticket price includes a post-show reception where members of the audience can meet and talk with the artists.
